SEE ANDREW W.K. PARTY WITH KAT DENNINGS IN NEW "EVERYBODY SINS" VIDEO

Triumphant third single off upcoming 'God Is Partying' LP Country
Afghanistan

text REVOLVER STAFF \(/USERS/REVOLVER-STAFF\)

July 14, 2021

There's party metal (<https://www.revolvermag.com/music/fan-poll-top-5-party-metal-bands>) — and then there's Andrew W.K. From co-hosting the Revolver Golden Gods to enlisting Obituary drummer Donald Tardy for his band to working out to Napalm Death (<https://www.revolvermag.com/music/see-andrew-wk-unleash-insane-napalm-death-air-drumming-workout>), W.K. takes partying seriously and that ethos instills his upcoming album, God Is Partying, his heaviest, most metallic offering yet.

Today (July 14th), following two bombastic singles "Babalon" and "I'm in Heaven", the party-rock icon has unleashed another rager, the triumphant, hard-charging "Everybody Sins." The song arrives along with a characteristically unhinged music video, this one including a brief appearance by W.K.'s fiancée Kat Dennings. Watch and listen above.

"When we started working on the video for 'Everybody Sins', the director and I were scheming and straining over some of the choreography and camera moves," W.K. commented. "Now, I do realize some people will say life's too short to scheme and strain like this. And others will say life's too short NOT to scheme and strain. Still, other people will say both these approaches are incorrect. And what do I say? Everything I just said in the video for 'Everybody Sins.'"
